Mayor's Cup

Congratulations to Central School of Hoquiam. The Bears are the 2012 Mayor's Cup champion by having the largest percentage of students participate in a short run to promote active life styles. Anchor Bank has donated $150 to Central's library for their efforts. They are now the holder of the Mayor's Cup trophy for the year.

Great Job
Central Bears!

Splash Vendors

The City of Aberdeen is taking applications for those interested in being a vendor at our 4th of July Splash Festival.

Over 10,000 people attend this event every year.

Splash is held at the Morrison Riverfront Park from 2:00 to 10:30 p.m.

Vendor space is available for between $30 and $110, depending on location, + a $15 power fee if you need power.

Each vendor must submit a certificate of insurance and take care of all permits with the GH County Health Department.

Vendor applications can be found at www.aberdeenwa.gov, picked up at the Aberdeen Parks & Recreation office on the 2nd floor of Aberdeen City Hall or call 537-3248 to have one mailed to you.
